Latest News

Improvement work continues at Cheshire View, in line with the Board of Directors' strategy to make Cheshire View an outstanding venue for all. In addition to re-surfacing the driveway, landscaping of the areas around the new Memorial Garden is due to take place shortly.

Inside the building a refurbishment of the Conservatory is almost complete and carpeting of the Stanley Walker Suite will be done in August. Planning work is also proceeding for upgrades to the Bar/Cellar, Main Entrance and Patio areas.

The Ashlar Room

Cheshire View is proud to announce that the prestigious Ashlar Room has been approved by Cheshire West and Chester Council for Civil Ceremonies. With its stained glass windows, vaulted ceiling and Ash furniture it is the ideal venue for your Civil Ceremony.

There is ample seating for about 80 guests and it is the perfect backdrop for guests to take some memorable photographs.

To book The Ashlar Room for your Civil Ceremony please contact the Hall Manager on 01244 332442 Ext 2.

Memorial Garden

Work on Cheshire View's Memorial Garden is almost complete, artefacts from the former Freemasons' Hall in Hunter Street have been carefully incorporated into the design of the walled area. Built by two members of Cheshire View, Iain Tomlinson and John Goodwin, the garden forms part of the works to improve both the main driveway into Cheshire View and the Bowling Green surrounds. Clarence Lodge have generously donated three Teak benches for use in the garden in memory of Sydney & Lillian Greatbanks.

House Wines

Mcguigans - blended Red (Australia)

This classic red wine has great fruit flavours of spicy plum, cherry and blackberry. It is a well balanced wine with a smooth and mouth filling finish. A versatile wine that goes well with most dishes, it is especially rewarding with tomato based Italian and spicy Asian food.

Alcoholic content 13%.

Ambassador for RMTGB

Roger Reynolds, a member of Bridgegate Lodge and a Director of Cheshire View, has been appointed as Ambassador for the RMTGB in Cheshire. His role will be to increase awareness of the work undertaken by the Trust, identify potential petitioners through greater understanding of the core aims and to raise the positive profile of the Trust by highlighting successful initiatives such as 'Talent Aid'.

Roger will be pleased to deliver a presentation on the workings of the Trust to any interested group or at any fund-raising event.
